

Krone Borealis : 'stars of love' created by Nicky Krone for his wife Mary

Legend records that Bacchus fell in love with Ariadne, daughter of the King of Crete. The King forbade their union and Ariadne was heart-broken.

In order to prove to the King his true love for Ariadne and to uplift her spirits, Bacchus threw his golden crown, a circlet of gems, into the heavens to shine forever as the dainty constellation of stars known as Corona Borealis.

Krone and Corona both mean Crown the first in Dutch, the second in Latin
